INTERESTING STRATHMORE NEWS ITEMS

(From the Strathmore and Bow Valley Standard.)

Don't forget the Farmers' Fair—October 23

Mrs. E. E. Warren is this week staying at the King Edward.

Mr. William Ferguson commenced operations at his new two-story dwelling-house on Wednesday.

Six lots in Strathmore were sold by the C.P.T.C. Co. on Thursday forenoon, which seems to show that things are going to him a bit here this fall.

Two of our local sports were out shooting on Wednesday, and baggied quite a number of prairie chickens at Quake. The territorial artist is quite pleased with his success.

It is probable that a Masonic Lodge will be formed here this winter. There are a considerable number of brothers of the mystic tie in the town and district, and the formation of a Lodge would be a distinct boon.

Mr. C. D. Swan, who two years ago came from Indiana County, Pennsylvania, returned to his old home last week, and word has just been received that within forty-eight hours of his arrival in Pennsylvania, he became the possessor of a happy bride. They are expected to arrive shortly.

Some nights ago, at a very late hour, Mr. Lloyd, of the King Edward, heard a curious noise on the hotel roof, and, thinking it was some benighted wanderer seeking a night's repose, threw up his window and asked what was the trouble.
"Well, you see, I was bottle of shakes," a thick voice exclaimed.
The window was shut down again, but Mr. Lloyd refused to state what he said afterwards.

Mr. Stanger, who has been spending the summer at his ranch near Strathmore, returned to his home at Pender, Oregon, on Friday. She intends to be back next spring. Mr. Stanger has formed a most favorable opinion of the district since she came here.
It is probable that when she returns she will bring her family with her and make Strathmore her permanent home.

The hardships and inconveniences of developing a new country are sometimes interspersed with very amusing incidents. Last week the wife of one of our recent settlers made it known that, when leaving her former home, she had forgotten to ship the cat, and suggested that if anyone had more cats than they required at home, she would be pleased to accept one within the next week. This fortunate person was the recipient of thirty-one cats.

Robert F. Saer and William A.
Saer, sons of William Saer, just west of town, came in from Hanna, North Dakota, this week, and each bought a farm Robert F. bought a half section and William A. bought three quarter section.
From Mr. Frank T. McElroy. This means two new families in this community and knowing their father, William Saer, we have reason to believe we are getting some of North Dakota's best citizens.

Mr. Christensen, south of town, has just threshed his first crop, consisting of spring wheat and oats, this week. Sixty acres of oats grown on last year's breaking yielded him an average of 50 bushels per acre.
One field of his spring wheat yielded him an average of 40 bushels, and that part of his field which was seeded early in April yielded him an average of 51 bushels. This will be of interest to a great many of Mr. Christensen's friends and neighbors for the reason that he has very decided ideas of his own as to the way the soil should be prepared for a crop, and at the present writing none of us are prepared to dispute his opinions.

One of the largest land deals of the season was closed on Tuesday by our local real estate man, Mr.
Frank T. McElroy.
Mr. E. E. Green and three associates of Missoula, Montana, incorporated as the Strathmore Farm Company, of which Mr. Green is a stockholder and manager, will develop and operate about 2500 acres of choice farm land situated about four miles east of town.

Mr. Green comes very well recommended, having been Principal of the High School in the city of Missoula for the past three years.
He has been in Strathmore for some time past looking after the interests of the Company.

On Tuesday Captain Combs and two other officers of the Salva-Army were in the district on a visit to the ground which the Army has secured for a colony about nine miles north of the best type of land.

They were very well pleased with the work which has already been done by the Canadian Pacific Irrigation Colonization Co. in putting up fences, sinking wells, ploughing, etc.

Capt. Combs stated that over 1200 colonists would be brought over from England by the Army next spring. Those settlers would be of the best type, and would do much to assist the development of the district.

The ground purchased has been divided into 80-acre farms, and on each farm the C.P.I. Co. has already broken 50 acres of ground, so that everything will be in readiness for the colonists to start work at once when they arrive.

It does not require the eye of a lecturer to see that Strathmore is at present progressing very fast, and growing a sizeable population, and that the surrounding district is also very quickly being peopled. The prospects for our new colony of land being bought up are in themselves testimony to these facts. In every 150 acres we commenced publication we have chronicled the erection or prospective erection of new properties in the town, and also of the sale of large tracts of farm land.
We have not had to go outside of Strathmore for our news every item regarding sales and building has been purely local and the items of news also show the progress of the town and it is not only our own opinions that we have backed up statements. For instance, there will be found in our present issue reports of interviews with two distinguished gentlemen who visited our town during the week, and both of them were unanimous in marvelling at the growth of the town and district, and in predicting a still greater advance in the future. There are also the evidences of progress in other than a material sense in the reports of the building and closing of churches, and in the social life of the community.

With all this, therefore, it is no wonder that the people at Strathmore are looking forward with confidence to the future, and extending their business accordingly.

In the short time the STANDARD has been in existence it has done much to spread abroad the fame of the Strathmore district.
Copies have been sent to all parts of the world and especially to the United States. We believe it is a good thing to keep the district before the eyes of the world, and we shall continue that policy in the future.
We will not, however, exaggerate.
There is no need to.

From small beginnings have risen the greatest of towns.
Rome was not built in a day.
Neither was Strathmore, but every day Strathmore is a little larger, and the ratio of increase is also becoming greater daily.

STRATHMORE

On Wednesday Strathmore had the honor of a visit from Brigadier-General Edmund Bittell, of the Illinois National Guard, and Mrs. Bittell.

The Brigadier has been attending a military convention at Los Angeles and there travelled to the Seattle exposition, and then to Calgary by way of British Columbia, arriving some time at Banff.

The reason for his visit to Strathmore is that he has an old friend here in the person of Mr. Strathmore, the C.P.R. Co's agent. Mr. Strathmore has been known to visit other for many years. Mr. Strathmore travelled to Calgary on Tuesday to meet him and Mrs. Bittell and came down with them to Strat.

They left for the 12:30 train on Thursday morning for Moose Jaw, where they have relatives. From there they will return to their home at Rock Island, Ill.

Brigadier-General Bittell is a prominent figure in United States military circles and was active service in the Spanish-American war, being at Porto Rico and Cuba. This is his first visit to Alberta, and the constant prosperity of the province has greatly impressed him.

Calgary he thought a fine city, up-to-date in every respect. New cities like Calgary had every opportunity of becoming all of the cost, while they would discard all that was not the time or energy planned. It was a pleasure to look over Calgary, the streets were all so straight, without any tortuous turnings, and on a river the next street railway system the sight of so many fine modern buildings was a pleasant one.

Strathmore also notes the Brigadier General's appreciation for its general business-like look and evidence of prosperity. When told of the rapid growth of the town, he said that it was just the right distance from Calgary, not too near or too far away, to become a place of importance in the future.

Mrs. Bittell shared her husband's opinion, and stated that they had a most enjoyable trip and that they would be sure to come back and visit Alberta again in the near future.

Do your own advertising. Make it a study. Study the wants of your trade. When you get something they want you to let them know it. Do what you say you will, and a fortune is yours. Advertising is a study, and if a man wants to be a success in the world until he has purchased a stock of goods and gets it placed on his shelves and then thinks about asking to the people, a success is yours. You cannot succeed on your reputation as a good writer. You cannot succeed on your reputation as a good bookkeeper. You must have successful associates and the chief of these is to be able to get near the buyer and to inspire that confidence which will not lose long continued mutual good feeling, and to this end the newspaper is yours.

The Call is now prepared to supply all sizes and ratings for horse and dog ears to fit any building, at Toronto or Montreal prices.

STAM: ON THE COW

The editor of the New York Farmer hands out the striking comparison on the hen and the cow situation:

Last winter, when eggs were selling at thirty to forty cents a dozen, you had no hen on your farm. Next winter, so the middlemen in the cities are now profiting, eggs will sell probably at forty to sixty cents a dozen. Shall you have any hens laying the eggs to be sold at that price? You have the ideal conditions for growing poultry. You do not need a half-acre, each hen will earn for you one or two dollars net gain. A hundred hens will earn you $100 to $200 per year, which is more than you can get from a high class cow, or from two pool cows, or from four fair cows, or from eight average cows, or from sixteen poor cows, or from twenty low class scrub cows. Your hundred hens will be an investment of perhaps $50, which would lay you one constant cow that would lose for you one to ten dollars a year. Have you ever examined the poultry proposition from the commercial side?

How near is he right?

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

The characteristics that make a man eminent in one class run him in another. If you are a clerk, rank to not behave like a clerk.

Self-interest is not a virtue! It is only the effects of popularly.

Goodness, in its popular British sense of self-interest, implies that a man is not a martyr.

Goodness is nothing but the self-indulgence of a good man.

Our plan is to govern by imitating, and let everybody do the secret. The French govern by imitating, and let everybody do the secret.

No man pretends that his soul links anyone excepted in his sacrifice; such an affliction would stamp him as a coward and a weakling. Men who yearn for self-sacrifice are merely unworkable.

The ideal wife is the one who does everything that the husband does and nothing else.

We live in an atmosphere of change. We are ashamed of everything that is not an advance of ourselves, of our relatives, of our incomes, of our careers, of our money, of our things. The more things a man is ashamed of the more respectable he is.

FIVE GREAT ENTERTAINMENTS

The most important announcement in the history of the local amusement is the fact that Manager C. P. Walker, of Winnipeg, will let us all witness the five entertainments included in the Star Entertainment Course. Arrangements have been complete. Where this course will appear here under the auspices of the Gleichen Opera Co., P. P. Fisher, manager.

Each company is made up of the best talent that money can command. The selection of the five entertainments is made up of the best talent that money can command. The selection of the five entertainments is made up of the best talent that money can command.

A delectable feature of the course will be the English Grand Opera Singers and the Josephine Jackson, consisting of a quartette of operatic vocalists, led by Mr. Louis La Valle, the famous Canadian baritone. Mr. La Valle was one of the leading members of the Josephine Jackson Opera Company and has been the foremost English singing dramatic baritone of his continent. This organization will give the popular music from the star talent light and grand opera and give an entertainment which cannot be equalled for musical excellence.

The Melic Concert Company, headed by the eminent South-western, Robert Melic, assisted by three high class artists, will be heard in concert.

Leslie Marie Biggers, the famous California valet, will appear, while John Donald Duffie will feature on "The Honor and Glory of the British Commonwealth."

Study Economy.

HOW?

By not allowing your clerks to do their it's and cross their t's. We alone have saved $200 this month by applying this system in our business. Doing a roaring business, did you say? Well, no wonder, when I sell High Grade Tar Paper at 90 cents per roll, a Stout Building Paper at 75 cents.
